In “The Fast Health Interoperability Resources (FHIR) Standard: Systematic Literature Review of Implementations, Applications, Challenges and Opportunities” (JMIR Med Inform 2021;9(7):e21929) the authors noted one error.

The title of the originally published article contained an error in the abbreviation “FHIR.” The title originally read as follows:

The Fast Health Interoperability Resources (FIHR) Standard: Systematic Literature Review of Implementations, Applications, Challenges and Opportunities

In the corrected version, the title has been revised to:

The Fast Health Interoperability Resources (FHIR) Standard: Systematic Literature Review of Implementations, Applications, Challenges and Opportunities

The correction will appear in the online version of the paper on the JMIR Publications website on August 17, 2021, together with the publication of this correction notice. Because this was made after submission to PubMed, PubMed Central, and other full-text repositories, the corrected article has also been resubmitted to those repositories.

This is a non-peer-reviewed article. Submitted 12.08.21; accepted 12.08.21; published 17.08.21.
